

Charter of the Personnel Committee of Sitowise Group Plc

1. General

The Personnel Committee of Sitowise Group Plc (the "Company") is responsible for recommending and evaluating executive nominations and compensations including Chief Executive Officer's (CEO), evaluating the performance of the CEO and making recommendations to the Board on compensation matters regarding the members of the Management Team. In addition, the Personnel Committee coordinates and prepares proposals relating to the development of the corporate culture and personnel strategy of the group. The Board appoints the CEO and approves his/her compensation as well as the nomination and compensation of other members of the Management Team. The Personnel Committee is also responsible for the preparation of a policy and report concerning the remuneration of the Company's Board of Directors, CEO and possible deputy CEO (the "Governing Bodies").

2. Composition of the Personnel Committee

The Committee consists of the Chairman and at least two members, which the Board selects among its members following the Annual General Meeting. The term of office of the members is one year.

The majority of the Committee members shall be independent of the Company. A person who participates in the day-to-day management of the Company or a company in the same group of companies, for example as a CEO, cannot be appointed to the Personnel Committee. The Personnel Committee may also invite to the meetings the CEO or other experts who are relevant to matters on the agenda.

3. Duties of the Personnel Committee

The Committee shall prepare the following decisions for the Board to decide:

1. Nomination of the members of the Management Team and CEO;
 - prepare for the nomination of the CEO and his/her deputy and organize the successor planning of the same; and
 - review and prepare for the nominations of the members of the Management Team and other officers reporting to the CEO and organize the successor planning of the Management Team and other key employees.
2. Compensation of the members of the Management Team;
 - from time to time review and prepare a proposal on the overall compensation policies applicable to the members of the Management Team;
 - review and prepare a proposal to the Board on the compensation of the members of the Management Team and other officers reporting to the CEO including each of the components thereof; and
 - ensure that the members of the Management Team are rewarded appropriately for their contributions to the Company's growth and profitability and that such compensation policies are aligned with the Company's business strategy, long-term financial success and shareholder interests.

3. CEO compensation;
 - review and prepare a proposal to the Board on corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the CEO;
 - evaluate the performance of the CEO in light of the above-referenced goals and objectives;
 - prepare a proposal to the Board on the compensation of the CEO (including each of the components thereof) based on the above-referenced evaluation; and
 - in determining the long-term incentive component of the CEO's compensation, the Committee should consider the Company's performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to CEOs at other companies comparable to the Company and awards given to the CEOs in past years.
4. Incentive and other benefit plans:
 - review and prepare a recommendation to the Board on at least an annual basis evaluating the Company's compensation and other benefit plans, including incentive compensation and equity-based plans and programs;
 - review and prepare a recommendation to the Board on the granting of options, restricted stock, stock appreciation rights and other equity-based grants to the members of the Management Team consistent with the Company's incentive compensation plans and programs and compensation strategy; and
 - ensure that the Company's compensation structure is competitive and make recommendations as necessary.
5. Remuneration policy
 - prepare the Company's policy concerning the remuneration of the Company's Governing Bodies (the "Remuneration Policy") for the Board at least every four years;
 - present the Remuneration Policy at the General Meeting and answer any question related thereto;
 - prepare an amended Remuneration Policy for the Board whenever the General Meeting has opposed a Remuneration Policy or whenever substantial changes are made to an approved Remuneration Policy, which are not merely of a technical nature and which are not covered by the possibility of a temporary deviation defined in the Remuneration Policy; and
 - present the amended Remuneration Policy at the General Meeting and answer any question related thereto.
6. Remuneration report
 - prepare the Company's report concerning the remuneration of the Company's Governing Bodies (the "Remuneration Report"); and

- present the Remuneration Report at the Annual General Meeting and answer any question related thereto.

7. Development of the personnel and organization

- prepare the proposals to the Board on the development and implementation of the strategy related to the personnel and organizational structure;
- evaluate and make proposals concerning the framework for development and promotion of identification of talent in the Company's organization;
- evaluate and monitor the development of the expertise and skills of the Management Team and other key employees; and
- evaluate and monitor surveys related to the Company's personnel and customer satisfaction.

4. Meetings and Reporting to the Board

The Committee shall meet at least annually and at such other times as determined by the Chairman of the Committee. The minutes shall be prepared for each meeting.

The secretary to the Committee shall be nominated by the Board of Directors. The Committee reports on its work to the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Committee presents to the Board a summary report of each of the Committee meetings. Furthermore, the minutes of the Committee meetings and materials of the Committee are made available to the Board members.

The Chairman of the Personnel Committee may invite other persons, such as external experts, to participate in the Committee's meetings as determined case by case. All Board members can, if they wish, participate in the meetings of the Personnel Committee. When carrying out its duties, the Committee shall act independently with relation to the operative management of the Company. Thus, if the Committee uses an external advisor to assist in carrying out its duties, the Committee shall ensure that the advisor is not also an advisor to the operative management in a manner that can result in a conflict of interest.

5. Approval of the Charter

This Charter was approved at the meeting of the Board on 25 February 2021.
